

The International Association for Conflict Management 16th Annual Conference June 15 – 18, 2003 Melbourne, Australia

Melbourne, the capital of Victoria, is located on the banks of the Yarra River. It is home to 3.5 million people from over 140 nations. Explore Melbourne's laneways and discover its cafes, restaurants and night clubs. Enjoy the Victorian-era architecture. Visit the Arts precinct and sample Melbourne's cultural life. If you love good coffee, good food or sport, you'll love Melbourne. The conference hotel, the Westin, is located in the heart of Melbourne's business district and surrounded by historic buildings.

Local Arrangements

Mara Olekalns
Melbourne Business School &
School of Behavioural Science

Mimi Shields
Melbourne Business School

Di Bretherton
International Conflict Resolution Centre
School of Behavioural Science

Like to know more? Contact us
IACM2003@mbs.edu

Come for IACM and stay for
The Industrial-Organisational
Psychology Conference, 27 – 29 June

International Perspectives on Peace and Reconciliation Conference, 14 – 16 July

